Compton College Homecoming Football Game Highlights 90th Anniversary Celebration

Free Homecoming Festival and Car Show, Followed by Tartar Football on September 30

On Sept. 30, the Compton College Tartar Football team faces off against Pasadena City College at 6 p.m. for its annual homecoming game. The game will be the culmination of a day of celebration for Compton College, with a special Homecoming Festival and Car Show beginning at 11 a.m. to provide entertainment for the whole family.

This will be the Tartar's fifth game of the regular season. Last week, freshman Bobby Simon and sophomore Jordan Kelly both counted touchdowns, but the Tartars fell 48-16 at Santa Barbara City College on Saturday afternoon. Simon rushed for four yards to complete an eight play, 45-yard drive in the second quarter. Kelly caught a four-yard pass from sophomore quarterback Da'jon Dinkins in the third to complete a five play, 61-yard drive.

Sophomores Gregory Filer, III and Alonzo King, Jr. accounted for the team's second safety of the season, tackling the Santa Barbara Vaqueros' running back in the end zone during the fourth quarter.

Prior to kickoff on Saturday evening, Compton College will be celebrating its 90th Anniversary with a car show, live music from four different bands, food trucks, vendors, face painting and a kids' play zone, and local radio stations from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. The 90th Anniversary Homecoming Festival and Car Show is a complimentary event open to the public.

Bring the entire family for an afternoon of free activities, and then attend the Tartar Football homecoming game at the regular admission prices. Ticket prices are $8 general admission, $5 senior citizens and Compton College employees, $3 for students without an ASB sticker, and free for students with a Compton College fall 2017 ASB sticker and youth under the age of 12.
