Compton College Welcomes New Director of Financial Aid

The Compton Community College District is pleased to welcome Keith Cobb as the new director of Financial Aid. Under the direction of the vice president of Student Services, the director of Financial Aid provides administrative oversight of the Financial Aid Office at Compton College. As director of Financial Aid, Cobb is responsible for ensuring compliance with federal, state and institutional policies, procedures and regulations that pertain to eligibility determination, awarding, and disbursement of financial aid.

Cobb has more than 20 years of experience in the administration of federal and state financial aid at the community college level. He previously worked at Cypress College as the director of Financial Aid. He is well versed in the development and implementation of systems for effective delivery of student financial aid. Cobb has experience with the application of computerized student financial aid systems to accommodate multiple processors, and to allow for electronic transmission of financial aid data. In addition, he has had extensive experience in the comprehension and interpretation of government regulations related to student financial aid administration.

Cobb earned a master's degree in human behavior at National University and a bachelor's degree in human services from California State University, Fullerton. He is a member of the National Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators, the California Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators and the California Community College Student Financial Aid Administrator Association.
