Title 5 Sections 55200 et. Seq.:

U.S. Department of Education regulations on the Integrity of Federal Student Financial Aid Programs under Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended;
34 Code of Federal Regulations Part 602.17.

Consistent with federal regulations pertaining to federal financial aid eligibility, Compton College must authenticate or verify that the student who registers in a distance education or correspondence education course is the same student who participates in and completes the course or program and receives the academic credit. Compton College will provide to each student at the time of registration, a statement of the process in place to protect student privacy and estimated additional student charges associated with verification of student identity, if any.

The Vice President of Academic Affairs or his designee, in consultation with the Distance Education Advisory Committee or other appropriate campus committee, shall utilize one or more of the following acceptable procedure for verifying a student's identity:

- secure credentialing/login and password system
- proctored examinations
- New or other technologies and practices that is effective in verifying student Identification.

The Vice President of Academic Affairs or his designee, in consultation with the Distance Education Advisory Committee or other appropriate campus committee, shall establish procedures for providing a statement of the process in place to protect student privacy and estimated additional student charges associated with verification of student identity, if any, to each student at the time of registration.

Definition

Distance education means instruction in which the instructor and student are separated by distance and interact through the assistance of communication technology.

Course Approval

Each proposed or existing course offered by distance education shall be reviewed and approved separately. Separate approval is mandatory if any portion of the instruction in a course or a course section is designed to be provided through distance education.

The review and approval of new and existing distance education courses shall follow the curriculum approval procedures outlined in Administrative Procedure 4020, Program, Curriculum, and Course Development. Distance education courses shall be approved under the same conditions and criteria as all other courses.

Certification

When approving distance education courses, the Curriculum Committee will certify the following:

- Course Quality Standards: The same standards of course quality are applied to the distance education courses as are applied to traditional classroom courses.
- Course Quality Determinations: Determinations and judgments about the quality of the distance education course were made with the full involvement of the Curriculum Committee approval procedures
- Instructor Contact: Each section of the course that is delivered through distance education will include regular effective contact between instructor and students.
- Duration of Approval: All distance education courses approved under this procedure will continue to be in effect unless there are substantive changes of the course outline.

The Compton College catalogs shall include a clear statement of the limited applicability of remedial coursework toward fulfilling degree requirements and any exemptions that may apply to this limitation.
