MINUTES

1. Review minutes from June 7, 2021

The Consultative Council reviewed and approved the minutes from June 7, 2021.

2. President/CEO Items

A. COVID-19 UPDATE

Dr. Curry reported that he is waiting to hear what comes from the Governor’s Office tomorrow regarding the re-opening of California, before he does another assessment.

Heather Parnock commented the Governor will allow businesses to make their own decisions regarding the wearing of masks for employees and customers. The question is how we support or back that up. Also, being discussed is the difference between being fully vaccinated or not vaccinated at all and if there may be tiers.

B. Update on the Safe Return to Campus Plan – Status Report:

Dr. Curry reported that Enrollment Services is open. The Library/Student Services Center will open next week. Athletics is coming on campus now, and fully re-opening in 14 days. Dr. Curry said his major focus now is opening of Instructional Building 1, because that will impact the safe return in offering courses in that building.

C. 2021 Compton College Commencement Ceremony

Dr. Curry commented he thought Ava DuVernay’s keynote speech was one of the best he ever heard. He said he thought the Virtual Commencement Ceremony was great.

Christine Aldrich commented that she enjoyed the watch party, and thanked Heather Parnock and Andrei Yermakov for their work. She suggested that part time staff receive Uber Eats cards next time.

There was a discussion on holding the next Commencement Ceremony at the Dignity Health

Stadium next year for the 2020, 2021, and 2022 graduating classes.

3. Compton College Facilities Update

Linda Owens reviewed the Compton College and Compton Community College District Facilities projects contained in this agenda packet.

4. June 15, 2021, Board Agenda Review

The Consultative Council reviewed the agenda items for the June 15, 2021 Board meeting.
