MINUTES

- I. Meeting was called to order by P. Flor
- II. Motion carried to approve minutes from May 2021 meeting
- III. New Business
 - a. Recruitment of one Faculty Member – P. Flor stated that the matter has been forwarded to Academic Senate
 - b. Access to Student Services Webpage – J. Mills was able to connect with Heather Parnock and obtain access to the Student Services webpages. He is going to update them, including repairing links to Program Reviews and can give a presentation once he has completed the update.
 - c. Transitioning PR to ELumen – L. Sosenko provided an update to the transition to ELumen. Hopes to have the Program Review portion ready for spring 2022
 - d. Program Review (PR) report assignments:
 - i. History PR (Academic subcommittee I; Osanyinpeju, Washington, Lopez) Motion carried to accept the subcommittee’s recommendation of “Needs Improvement”
 - ii. ESL PR assigned to Academic subcommittee II (Flor, Radcliffe, McPatchell) Motion carried to accept the subcommittee’s recommendation of “Proficient”
 - iii. Counseling PR assigned to Student Services subcommittee (Sosenko, Blood, Hughes) Motion carried to accept the subcommittee’s recommendation of “Needs Improvement”
 - iv. Police PR assigned to Administrative subcommittee (Nasser, Richardson, Tatlilioglu) Motion carried to accept the subcommittee’s recommendation of “Needs Improvement”

IV. Other Business

- a. L. Sosenko brought up a concern regarding Program Reviews and the struggles some authors appear to be having with the data and asked the committee it's thoughts on what her office can do. P. Flor suggested that the issue was not with the data itself, but with the authors' use of the data and not addressing it in their narrative. They don't appear to be utilizing the data appropriately. D. Blood suggested mandatory FLEX training for anyone associated with Program Reviews. J. Mills suggested the committee get started in planning the mandatory trainings for spring 2022.
