

EL CAMINO COLLEGE COMPTON CENTER 2012 DISTINGUISHED FACULTY AWARD

Background

The El Camino College Compton Center Distinguished Faculty Award honors one full-time faculty member each year. These outstanding faculty members have demonstrated the highest level of commitment to their students, college, and profession. In addition to excellence in helping students succeed, they must have a record of outstanding participation on campus and in professional activities. The candidates are evaluated on the following:

1. Serving students.
2. Commitment to the El Camino College Compton Center mission.
3. Campus, professional, or student activities.
4. Commitment to education and discipline.
5. Commitment to serving as a representative of the profession.
6. Commitment to exhibiting professionalism to staff, faculty, students, and the campus.

Eligibility, Nominations, and Awards

1. Any current, full-time, certificated faculty member (teaching and non-teaching) who is listed in the 2011/2012 Compton Community Educational Center portion of the El Camino College Catalog is eligible for the award.
2. Any employee, student or community member may nominate any full-time faculty member for the award. Nominators' letters are submitted to the Office of Human Resources. The Office of Human Resources will ensure the nominated faculty members are notified of their nominations. Then the nominated candidates will submit the remaining required application materials if they so choose.
3. The faculty member selected for the award receives a specially designed medallion; $500 from the Compton Community College District; his or her name on a permanent plaque; recognition at the Annual Faculty and Staff Appreciation event; and recognition at Commencement.

NOMINATION AND APPLICATION PROCESS

Letters of Nomination

Nomination letters should explain the candidate's qualifications for consideration as a recipient of the El Camino College Compton Center Distinguished Faculty Award. Letters should be no more than 2 pages long, written using 12 point Times New Roman font with double spacing and one-inch margins. Please discuss the ways in which the candidate meets the six criteria outlined in the attached rubric.

Letters of nomination must be received by the Office of Human Resources, no later than 4:30 p.m. on Friday, April 20, 2012. Letters of nomination must be submitted in a sealed envelope and may NOT be faxed or submitted on-line.

Candidate Application Materials

After being notified of their nominations, nominees are invited to submit the remaining required application materials, including the application cover sheet, Curriculum Vitae, Educational Philosophy Statement, and supporting documentation.

Selection Committee

The Selection Committee will be chaired by the Vice President-El Camino College Compton Center and include the President of the Faculty Council, President of the Associated Students Body (or designee), the previous Distinguished Faculty member (from ECC for 2012 only), and an academic dean. The committee's recommendation(s) will be forwarded to the CEO (Compton Community College District).

Questions may be directed to: Office of Human Resources.
