

DON'T LOSE YOUR BOARD OF GOVERNORS FEE WAIVER

Beginning with the Fall 2016 semester, students must maintain academic and progress standards – or be in jeopardy of losing their Board of Governors Fee Waiver (BOGFW).

ACADEMIC STANDARD REQUIREMENT:

You must maintain a cumulative grade point average (GPA) of at least 2.0.

Please note: if your cumulative GPA falls below 2.0, you may lose your fee waiver eligibility.

PROGRESS STANDARD REQUIREMENT:

You must have cumulative satisfactory completion of more than 50% of your attempted units.

Please note: if your cumulative satisfactory completion of attempted units is 50% or below, you may lose your fee waiver eligibility.

Once you have qualified for the BOGFW, it is important to ensure that you are meeting the academic and progress standards in order to continue receiving the fee waiver.

If you lose eligibility for the BOGFW, there are a few ways that you can have it reinstated, including filing an appeal here by July 7, 2016.
