Compton Community College District Interim CEO Keith Curry Rescheduled to Speak at Compton City Council Meeting February 12

Compton Community College District (CCCD) Interim CEO Keith Curry's presentation at the Compton City Council meeting has been rescheduled from February 5 to February 12, at 5:45 p.m. in the City Council Chambers. Compton City Hall is located at 205 South Willowbrook Avenue, Compton, CA 90220.

In support of the Compton Community College District's (CCCD) community engagement activities, Curry's presentation will focus on the CCCD Measure CC Bond funds, the District's facility needs and its long-term facilities plan. To develop community understanding of the District in every aspect of its operation and open avenues of communication, Curry believes more community participation is necessary.

As part of his community engagement plan, during the past year Curry hosted a series of "CEO Roundtable Discussions" in the various cities served by the District; he also met with area elected officials, business organizations, churches and community leaders; and continues to meet with state and federal elected officials representing the areas included within the CCCD.

In addition to the CEO roundtable discussions, the CCCD Community Participation in Governance initiative invites community groups to sit at the dais during board meetings and become involved in deliberation, dialogue and action on issues they are concerned about. For more information, please contact the Office of the Interim CEO at 310-900-1600, Ext. 2000.
