Director of Admissions and Records Hired for El Camino College Compton Center

El Camino College Compton Center is pleased to welcome Richette Bell as the new Director of Admissions and Records. In this position, she will oversee all operations of the Admissions and Records Office and Assessment Center under the direction of the Dean of Student Services. Bell officially assumed the position of Admissions and Records Director on Jan. 1, 2013.

Before joining El Camino College Compton Center, Bell served as program manager at Goodwill Southern California, where she managed five vocational training and education programs. Her work experience at institutions of higher education includes California State Polytechnic University, Pomona, where she was director of Student Outreach and Visitor Services; the University of Southern California, where she worked as an Admissions and Recruitment coordinator; and California State University, Long Beach, where she served in a variety of capacities in the University Outreach and School Relations program, including as assistant director of Pre-collegiate Academic Development and Outreach.

Bell earned a master's degree in educational psychology from Clark Atlanta University and a bachelor's degree in criminal justice from California State University, Long Beach.
