Compton Community College District Celebrates Grand Opening of Music Building and Little Theater

A ribbon cutting ceremony for the Compton Community College District's newly renovated Music Building North Wing and Little Theater will be held at 3:00 p.m. on Tuesday, December 13, 2016.

The $3 million renovation project, funded by the Measure CC Bond, includes upgrades to the 220-seat Little Theater and adjacent restrooms, as well as the addition of ramps that meet Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) accessibility guidelines.

The Little Theater will be used to support the music and theater programs at El Camino College Compton Center, as well as for meetings, performances, and guest lectures occurring on campus for students, faculty, CCCD employees and members of the community.

"We want to thank the residents of the Compton Community College District for supporting the funding of this building renovation through the passage of Measure CC," said Keith Curry, CEO for the CCCD and provost for ECC Compton Center. "Voters have continued that support with the passage of Measure C in 2014, ensuring improved facilities and educational opportunities for students well into the future."

The Music Building/Little Theater is located at the center of campus and west of the Library-Student Success Center. This event is open to the public and parking will be available in Lot A.

El Camino College Compton Center is offering a five-week Winter Term 2017 beginning January 5, with plenty of classes available for students to get ahead in their educational plans. The winter term includes music and theater courses that will be held in the renovated Music Building. Current students are encouraged to register now for winter classes at www.compton.edu.
