Compton Community College District is Accepting Applications For its Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee

The Compton Community College District (CCCD) is currently accepting applications for consideration in serving on the Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee. The application deadline is 12:00 p.m. on December 2, 2016. Applications are available at www.district.compton.edu or by calling 310-900-1600, Ext. 2000. Upon selection, Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee members serve a term of two years and do not receive any compensation or benefits for their service. The Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee meets on a quarterly basis.

Qualifications for Membership

The Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee consists of seven members, including at least one representative from each of the following categories:

1. A member active in a business organization representing the business community located within the district;
2. A member who is a resident of the district and active in a senior citizens' organization;
3. A member who is a resident of the district and active in a bona fide taxpayers organization;
4. A member enrolled as a student at the El Camino College Compton Center and active in a campus group; and
5. A member active in an organization supporting the District such as a foundation.

To qualify for appointment, a member must meet the criteria listed in one of the above categories. A member cannot be an employee, official, contractor, consultant, or vendor of the Compton Community College District. Elected officials are also disqualified from service on the committee.

As outlined in Education Code Section 15278, the District Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee informs the public concerning the District's expenditure of revenues received from the sale of bonds authorized by the voters. More information on the role of the committee, as well as an application, can be found by visiting: www.district.compton.edu/measure_cc_bond/index.asp

Applications should be submitted to Keith Curry, CEO of the Compton Community College District, at 1111 E. Artesia Boulevard, Compton, CA 90221. For more information, call 310-900-1600, Ext. 2000.
