Compton Community College District Accepting Applications from Individuals Interested in Serving on Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee

The Compton Community College District (CCCD) is currently accepting applications for consideration in serving on the Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee. The application deadline is 5:00 p.m. on Monday, March 14, 2022. Applications are available in the District's Office of the CEO or online at: https://compton.edu/district/citizens_bond_oversight/docs/Oversight-Committee-Application.pdf

The CCCD is seeking applicants who represent the following constituencies: a member who is a resident of the district and active in a bona fide taxpayers organization; a district resident who is active in a senior citizens' organization; and members of the community at large who reside within the Compton Community College District.

To qualify for appointment, a member must meet the criteria listed in one of the above categories. A member cannot be an employee, official, contractor, consultant, or vendor of the Compton Community College District. Elected officials are also disqualified from service on the committee.

As outlined in Education Code Section 15278, the Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee informs the public concerning the District's expenditure of revenues received from the sale of bonds authorized by the voters. More information on the role of the committee, as well as an application, can be found by visiting: https://compton.edu/district/citizens_bond_oversight/index.aspx.

Applications should be submitted to Keith Curry, CEO of the Compton Community College District, via email to kcurry@compton.edu or mailed to 1111 E. Artesia Boulevard, Compton, CA 90221, Attn: Keith Curry, CEO. For more information, call 310-900-1600, Ext. 2000.
